PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Noel Rappaport, 7 Lewis Drive, Garnerville stated that when he travels Thiells Mt.-Ivy Road he noticed that there are no lights and it is very dangerous. Who controls the lights?

Supervisor Phillips stated that he has met with Orange & Rockland and they are aware of the situation. We need about three or four more lights along Thiells Mt.-Ivy Road. The County said that this road was one of their priorities.

Noel Rappaport, 7 Lewis Drive, Garnerville complimented our Highway Department on snow removal this year and how clean everything was.

George Wargo, Superintendent of Highways stated that he didn't do it, the guys did it. They did a very good job.

Supervisor Phillips stated that we are waiting to hear back from the County Executive's Office to hold the tax summit. We definitely want to hold the summit and we will send out a flyer or some type of notification out to the public.

Supervisor Phillips stated that we have been in court since last week with NRG regarding the certiorari case. NRG is the third owner of the Bowline Power Plants. For the fourth year in a row, the owner of these plants has filed for a 97% reduction in their assessment. The assessment which was set by Supreme Court Judge Dickerson has since been reduced by the Town Assessor by more than 60% over the last four years. NRG is still requesting a 97% reduction on top of that. We continue to try and negotiate a settlement agreement with NRG.

TOWN BOARD
GARNERVILLE, NY
JANUARY 13, 2014

Bob McGannon, Central Highway, Garnerville asked what are their justifications to reduce the power plants by 97%? How do they justify that?

Supervisor Phillips stated that NRG can say that the plants are not working and they are not running or operating. Bowline I has not operated in the last four years and has been downgraded.

William Stein, Town Attorney stated that NRG has hired all kinds of experts to testify that the plants are obsolete.

Joel Santana, Dominican American Coalition of Haverstraw wished the Town Board a Happy New Year and asked that if the power plants had another owner would they be subject to inspections to keep it up to code. Are they subject to inspections?

Supervisor Phillips stated that absolutely not! A municipality can enforce something structural on the building but not the equipment used to produce power.

William Stein, Town Attorney stated that these plants are losing millions of dollars year after year.

ADJOURNMENT

101-14 Supervisor Howard T. Phillips, Jr. stated that he would like to close tonight's meeting in memory of James Mulligan, Marianne Byrnes, Roy O'Dell, George "Buddy" Ehlers, Peter Eibert, Clifton L. Bowman, Mary Teresa Gatti, Robert M. Bennett, Anthony F. Pacella, Margaret Phillips, Lorraine A. Mead, Alfred Nicolas, Richard Purcell, Josephine Mary Carpenter, Michael Piantadosi, Sr., Brianna Nicole Bunyan, Ronald M. O'Dell, Juan Garcia, Frank C. Palluotto, Robert L. Aromando, Elvio L.
